

Jarosław Lech

Ph.D.
Senior Consultant

CURRENT RESPONSIBILITY

Jarosław is a senior consultant with the Warsaw office of Milliman. He joined the firm in 2015.

EXPERIENCE

Jarosław has 18 years of experience in actuarial field, as well as several years of university research. Prior to joining Milliman, Jarosław worked for 15 years for Allianz Poland, where he attained chief actuary position.

During his career Jarosław has worked on a variety of life and non-life topics. His areas of interest include:

- Non-life reserving including uncertainty analysis
- Non-life pricing, including classical and machine learning techniques
- Risk management and Solvency II
- Valuation of life companies
- Asset liability management
- Life product development

Jarosław is fluent in English and has basic Spanish and German.

PROFESIONAL DESIGNATIONS

Fellow, Polish Society of Actuaries

PRESENTATIONS AND PUBLICATIONS

Jarosław is author and coauthor of scientific papers published in international journals, as well as publications on the Polish insurance market.

EDUCATION

- MSc, Mathematics, University of Lodz, Poland
- Ph.D., Mathematics, Michigan State University, USA

